STRONG TICKET BY ACCLAMATION

Judge Rolapp and A. G. Horn Nominated on Second Ballot.

FORMER'S ELOQUENT SPEECH

TELLS PRINCIPLES THAT SHOULD GUIDE JUDGE.

(Special to The Herald.)

Ogden, Sept. 7.—The Democratic convention of the Second judicial district. comprising Weber, Morgan and Davis counties, this afternoon placed in nomination the above candidates, adopted the usual party emblem and appointed a committee to conduct the district campaign, and listened to some brief but stirring addresses from the convention officers and candidates.

The convention met in the district court room at a little after 3 o'clock.

It was called to order by Thomas D. Dee, district, which was the convention of the Dee, district chairman. After briefly outlining the work before the convention, Judge Dee named the temporary chairman and secretary of the convention, and the usual committees were appointed. The temporary officers were later made permanent, on recommendation of the committee, which also named the other officers. The complete list follows:

Convention Officers.

Chairman, James H. Wilcox, Davis; vice chairman, Preston Blair, Weber; secretary, William Robison, Morgan; assistant secretary, W. H. Streeper, Davis; sergeant-at-arms, Levi B. Hammon, Weber; chaplain, David H. Sto-ker, Davis,

After prayer by the chaplain A. G. Horn placed in nomination for district judge Henry H. Rolapp, a service which he also performed at the nom-inating convention nine years ago. The nomination was seconded by Jo-seph Chez in an eloquent address, and more briefly by several other delegates from each county. The nomination was Noted Authority Wishes to Address State Convention.

The state committee yesterday received the following telegram from Senator Newlands of Nevada: Newlands of Nevada:

"Will your convention be in session Friday night, and would there be an opportunity for William E. Smythe to address it? He can arrive in Sait Lake Friday morning. He has been instructed by the national committee to discuss Democracy and western development, including national irrigation, on the stump and in the newspapers in the Rocky mountain states. Answer immediately, Palace hotel. San Francisco."

Fenater Newlands was advised that the convention would not be in session Friday, and, therefore, could not listen to Mr. Smythe, who is a well known authority on irrigation, and was one of the principal speakers at the Irrigation congress in Ogden last year.
